Present: Dennis Dann, John Gambill, Jerry Shihady, Keith Wright, Bill Ames, Vice President Bill Shepherd, Duane Whaley, Penny Batten, Treasurer Jane Kandler, President Sharon Whaley, Secretary Jody LaClear.

John Gambill made the motion to accept the minutes from the May Board Meeting
Jerry Shihady seconded.....motion carried.

There was much discussion about whether COSC has ever had an audit and the determination is that no one can remember one.

Treasurer's Report: Jane Kandler

John Gambill made the motion to accept the Treasurer's Report.
Dennis Dann seconded.....motion carried.

Penny Batten made the motion to accept our new members and renewals
Duane Whaley seconded.....motion carried.

Old Business: John Gambill: Is there insurance for the Gun Show? Bill Ames says that it will be renewed in August.

Dennis Dann: There will be a Hunter Safety class on July 8 and 9.

Jerry Shihady: There is a python living on the new 7 yard range.

Keith Wright: All tracks are up on the new range.

Bill Ames: We had 47 cub scouts on May 20 and 18 boy scouts on May 22.

Duane Whaley: On 11 June we contracted a paver to put liquid asphalt on the driveway entrance and cover it with pea stone. The cost was $5700.00. Cowboy Action is going strong and I need to order 2 more skids of birds for trap.

Penny Batten: Ladies, Ladies, Ladies is going good.

Jane Kandler: I bought a burn permit for $25. Call in advance before burning trash.

New Business: John Gambill: Was there someone who solicited the club about the paving material?

Bill Ames: Dave Schneider and I will be going over all of the .22 rifles the club owns.

Bill Shepherd: Does anyone own an FN-FAL rifle?

Penny Batten: I have new club T-shirts for sale.

Sharon Whaley: We are going to talk to an exterminator about insect control before ordering new archery targets.

John Gambill made the motion to adjourn
Penny Batten seconded.....motion carried
